

PhD Position in Law & AI/Robotics
at the University of Tartu (Estonia)

The University of Tartu (School of Law) in Estonia and RAILS (Robotics & AI Law Society) in Germany are hiring a PhD student who is interested to work in the intersection between law and AI/robotics.

Successful candidates will receive a doctoral scholarship by the University of Tartu.

RAILS offers additional support for participating in third-party funded AI/robotics research projects.

Key Responsibilities

- Conducting Research in the intersection between law and AI/Robotics
- Organizing workshops, financial planning
- Contributing to education programs at the University of Tartu
- Initiating new Research Projects

Your profile

- Successfully completed university studies (Master Degree) in law
- Proof of English language proficiency at a satisfactory level
(cf. <https://www.ut.ee/en/english-language-requirements-phd-students>)
- Advantageous: programming/technical knowledge

For more information, please contact Prof. Dr. Martin Ebers (martin.ebers@ut.ee) by sending the usual documents (CV, letter of motivation), as soon as possible, latest by 20 October 2019.

We would be grateful if you could circulate this call within your network!